Aerial Arts Exhibition

Over 700 visitors from across the UK attended a 2 day Aerial Arts Convention held at Ordsall Leisure Centre. Specialist rigging was erected to allow displays such as High Rings and Trapeze. The event showcased how the centre can adapt to the needs of different events. Two further events are planned during 2019.

Older Persons Activities

A number of new activities have been introduced at Clarendon Leisure Centre aimed at encouraging older people to become more active and socialise more within their local community. Walking Football sessions have grown in popularity and indoor bowling has been introduced.

Book Bingo

Readers in Salford are being challenged to take part in a fun game of “Book Bingo” at their local library. Players can choose any book from five of 25 categories and, when they complete a line, can enter a free regional prize draw. The categories are wide ranging, including “award winning”, “re-read a book you love”, “chosen with your eyes closed”, “made into a film”, “includes magic” and “a book you have always wanted to read”.

Copies of the Book Bingo sheet are available in any Salford Library, and readers have until 1st July 2019 to take part. The project is part of the work of ‘Time To Read’, a unique partnership of 22 library authorities in the North West working together to promote reading.

Forthcoming events and activities:

- School Swimming Galas
- Sayo and Sparky holiday activities
- Easter Camp
- CrossFit competition
- Further Aerial Arts events
