

Suggested Sport, Leisure and Tourism GCSE questions

This question is focused on popular entertainment since 1900.

Source A

(A Saturday matinee performance at a cinema in Langworthy, Salford in 1957)

Source B

(A bingo hall in Langworthy, Salford in 1984, in a building used previously as a cinema)

- Use Sources A and B and your own knowledge to describe what happened to cinema attendances between the 1950s and the early 1980s.
- Explain what impact television had on popular entertainment from the 1950s onwards.

This question is focused on changes in holiday patterns since 1900.

Source A

(An excursion to Blackpool for the people of Woodbine Street in Salford in 1926)

a. Use Source A and your own knowledge to describe the main features of day excursions in the 1920s.

Study these two sources which refer to the British people's use of seaside resorts and answer the question which follows.

Source B

'From the 1960s onwards British people were more interested in going to the seaside abroad.'

Source C

(An excursion to Southport for a Sunday School in Patricroft, Salford in 1966)

c. Why do sources B and C have different views about the use of seaside resorts by British people in the late twentieth century?